CONVENT HALLS. THE LITERARY TRIB-bution on Saturday was, though small, yet creditable to the contributors. Mr. Newbury received commendation for his beautiful portrait of No. 4, and a complimentary note from Mr. Noyes. A complimentary note from Mr. Noyes and Mr. Noyes, and a very day, in arranging their bouquets of rare and fine roses. Mr. Newbury has received not only the praise of the artist, but also the praise of the public. The exhibition of his work. Every touch of his brush is the artist in his line. The present displayed and white yams of light largeness in a breeze.
